TEEN ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Sayre Public Library is seeking teens to become active participants of the 2011 – 2012 Teen Advisory Council.

What's In It for You?

- Learn about your community and the programs and library services available to teens
- Work on providing dynamic library programs for the community with other teens.
- Gain useful experience--and references--for future education, jobs or careers.
- Provide your expertise in library program planning
- Have fun

Who Should Apply?

- Teens between the ages of 14 and 18.
- Freshmen, sophomores, or juniors in September 2011.
- Teens who live in the Valley
- Teens willing and able to work on library improvements for youth and teens.

What Is Expected of Council Members?

- Attend Teen Advisory Council meetings at least monthly
- Plan and Staff programs hosted by the library.
- Work on at least four projects during the year.
- Donate at least 50 hours to the community during the year.
