Check out our special displays, books, and programs!

Tuesday, February 1, 2011 - It's Black History Month at the Sayre Public Library. Stop in the Library and check out our special displays, test your knowledge on the Black History Quiz, sign up to attend the free movie, and more!

Thursday, February 3, 2011 – It's Meet the Author Night. Valley resident, Sean Michael O'Dwyer will be in the library to discuss his book, A Voice in the Wilderness and his adventures on the Appalachian Trail. The well-traveled author promises to also lecture on pilgrimage, a spiritual exercise largely discarded by modern society. The program begins at 6:00 PM.

Saturday, February 5, 2011, 2011 - To kick off Heart Health Month, the library will offer a free Zumba class. Zumba Fitness® is a Latin inspired dance and fitness program that blends music and lively steps to form a "fitness-party". The class starts at 11:00 AM. Participants should wear comfortable clothes and fitness shoes. Serena Cahoon, a professional Zumba instructor, will present the workshop.

Saturday, February 5, 2011 - The Leadership and Service for Teens Institute Cohort II at 9:30 AM. This innovative and flexible course provides teens essential life and citizenship skills through community service-learning experiences. Space is limited. Must be at least 14 years old. Registration is required.

Wednesday, February 9, 2011 - Free Basic Computer Classes for adults begin today. This six week class begins at 10:30 AM. Registration is required. Space is limited.

Thursday, February 10, 2011- The first Teen Art Jam of 2011 is scheduled. The program runs from 4:00 PM until 6:30 PM and is open to all area teens. This is a great way to showcase your talents. Registration is required.

Wednesday, February 23, 2011- A Raisin in the Sun at the Sayre Theater!
Attention Teens, and Adults! In celebration of Black History Month, the Sayre Public Library is proud to provide a free showing of this powerful movie starring Sidney Poitier and Ruby Dee. The movie is based on Lorraine Hansberry's award-winning play. The movie examines racial issues, the American Dream, pride in cultural heritage, and more. The movie begins at 6:45 PM.

Thursday, February 24, 2011 - Presentation on the Underground Railroad in Bradford County. The program begins at 6:00 PM.

More events to be posted!!! Check the website regularly! Sayre Public Library is proud to serve the Sayre community.
